Oak Leaf Skills March 10-11 Camp Wisdom

Oak Leaf Skills is a program led by OA Lippoe Chapter youth members and is designed to prepare Scouts for leadership roles within their troop. The course incorporates skill elements from the Trail to First Class with fun and challenging leadership development games and contests.

Participants must be a First Class Scout, or above, and have a current BSA medical form. Cost is $25 and covers all meals and supplies. Please make checks payable to Circle 10. Registration/payment can be made to Brian McGinley at Roundtable on Feb 16. Registration can also be made via e-mail to oakleaf@wisdomtrail.org through March 2 with payment at check-in on March 10.

The course will begin at 7 a.m. sharp on Saturday, March 10, by the old HQ building at Camp Wisdom. Scouts will back-pack to the campsite; however, transportation will be provided for camp chairs, large tents and Scouts with physical handicaps. Participants must bring their own eating utensils, mess kits, cups and water bottles, tents and camp chairs. The course will end by 11:30 a.m. on Sunday, March 11.
